August 12, 2018 Christianity should be a steering wheel, not a spare tire!

Looking for a way to get plugged in? The Ark is calling you! We are looking for a crew of fun-loving people to help in the Ark each Sunday from September through August. Teacher and helper positions are available for both services. We prepare the entire curriculum and provide subs when you need a day off. Caffeine and sweets are prepared for all volunteers who show up on time!

We are also looking for leaders to help with setup, concessions, small groups, teaching, games, and more for Studio A, our "tweens" program on Wednesday nights. It doesn't get any better or more rewarding than this! Interested? Come to the table in the back today for details, or contact Linda Brown at 360-757-8961, or e-mail lindab@hisplacechurch.com.

Ladies' Bible study — Ladies, are you ready for something new? The Quest: An Excursion toward Intimacy with God is a Bible study and video experience by Beth Moore, with a brand new format to encourage hearing God through His Word and dialoguing with Him. Choose from Tuesday evenings or Wednesday mornings for this 7-week study that begins September 11th (evenings) and September 12th (mornings). Enrollment is $25. For more information and to sign up, visit the table in the back.

Prime Time salmon barbecue — Prime Time is back with our annual salmon BBQ on Saturday, August 18th ... and this year we're adding a new feature. Roosevelt Road, an experienced NW bluegrass, Americana, and Gospel band will be bringing their fiddle, bass, banjo, guitars, and great vocals to liven up Riverside Park in Sedro-Woolley, where we'll enjoy Pastor Nick's fantastic salmon.

The fun begins at noon, with food served at 12:30. Prime Time is the His Place youth group for those age 55+! Tickets are available after service today at the table in the back of the sanctuary. Contact Sue Casteel at 425-343-5914 for more information.
